

Free Computer Classes for Older Adults

An Introduction to Email

Learn to send and receive emails; use attachments (photos); avoid spam and phishing scams; and more. If you have questions, we'll help you find the answers, all in a relaxed, small-group environment.

Where: Admaston/Bromley Public Library in Douglas

When: Saturday, September 30, 2017

Time: 1:30 to 5:30 p.m.

Who: Older adults, ages 55+

To register for this or other programs, please visit the library during regular operating hours or call 613-649-2576 (leave a message).

Attention Cyber Seniors! More workshops will be available in the months ahead, including more weekend workshops and 4 weeks of evening classes in November.

There's a whole new world waiting to be discovered at your local library!

Funded by:

